Asaba Group Holdings

History/About Us

Victor Edozien is the President and CEO of SET Enterprises, Inc. In addition he is the Founder/Managing Principal of The Asaba Group, Inc.- a strategy consulting/private equity holding company (Asaba Group Holdings) and is a veteran of the US Army. He has been in the automotive business for over 10 years and operates other automotive businesses under AG-Manufacturing, Inc. (AG Manufacturing - Michigan) with locations in Michigan, Illinois, and Alabama. Victor has over 15 years of experience in strategic planning, revenue growth strategy, acquisition strategies and business turnarounds/improvement. Edozien holds a BS in Electrical Engineering, BA Geology with Mathematics, MS in Engineering, and a MBA in Finance & Operations Management. He is currently a Wharton Fellow at The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania and is a member of the Young Presidents' Organization (YPO), the Entrepreneurs' Organization (EO), and CEO Connection. He is a board member of Real Life 101 Scholarship and Mentoring Program (Real Life 101 > Home); a 501(c)(3) organization with a mission to improving the higher education opportunities of at-risk inner-city African American males.